CONCLUSION

The above proposal reflects the aspirations and needs of our constituency's residents that the CDFCs have committed themselves to implement for this financial year 2019 /20. The member of Parliament, who is also the patron to the fund is in agreement with the public that there is need to improve learning environment in the constituency and promote education that our constitution guarantees as a basic right. As a key pillar of economy and a cornerstone for attainment of vision 2030, education as a means of alleviating poverty has been given much attention by our constituency.
