MIN 002 READING AND CONFIRMATION OF PREVIOUS MINUTES

The Secretary read through the previous minutes and was confirmed as a true record of what was deliberated. The minutes were confirmed by Mr. Sengera and seconded by Ms. Faith.

MIN 003 MATTERS ARISING

- It was reported that total funds received for FY 2022/2023 is kshs. 57,000,000.00 (Fifty Seven million shillings only).
- It was reported that payment for various office supplies has not been made.
- It was reported that resubmission of projects for was not approved.

MIN 004 RESUBMISSION OF PROJECTS

The chair informed the members that the resubmission of project that were sent to the NG-CDF Board on 16th May 2022 for approval was declined.

The members were informed that the resubmission which was done on 18th May, 2023 was not approved since NG-CDF Board recommended an alternative of the labs constructions. After deliberations by the members it was noted that the renovation of the classrooms of various schools was a priority and members agreed to seek for approval of the same and agreed to have the fund set aside for the purchase of the mobile laboratories of the twelve schools as indicated in the list of project seeking approval for resubmission.

It was noted that with junior secondary introduced in primary schools there is need to have the classrooms in good condition and have the mobile lab as a mitigation factor to ensure the students have the equipment needed. Members noted that the constituency will be able to purchase for all the primary schools with junior secondary the lab equipment during coming financial years.

The manager table a quotation from the school equipment production unit of kshs. 200,000 (two hundred thousand) and kshs 10,000 for transport. Members approved to purchase for twelve (12)
